This code has 2 parameters: a filename and a target word or character.

Simply put in the name or directory of your file name in the parameter "filename" and the target word in the parameter "target_character" and it will return you the number of times the target word or character was mentioned in the file provided by the user.